Level 3

There was a girl named Riya. She had many friends.They would play in a park which had many trees.They loved trees and did not like them to be cut.One day when they were playing they heard a group of people discussing about converting the park into a multistorey building.When the kids heard about this, they went as one an hugged the trees, shouting "We will never allow these trees to be cut!"Seeing how determined the kids were about saving the trees, the group of people changed their mind and left the place. Riya and her friends were very happy.They jumped, sang and danced in happiness
